(ZENIT News / Port Moresby- Dili, 09.09.2024).- Pope Francis’s whirlwind tour of Southeast Asia and Oceania reached an emotional high on Monday, September 9, as he met with over 10,000 young people at the Sir John Guise Stadium in Papua New Guinea’s capital, Port Moresby. After a private Mass earlier that morning, the Pontiff made his way to the stadium, where vibrant cultural performances and heartfelt testimonies awaited.

As he arrived, the Pope was greeted by the enthusiastic cheers of young people, many waving flags and holding banners. Riding through the crowd in a golf cart, Francis took in the energy and excitement that filled the air. The event started with traditional dances. At the end the Pope addressed the youth as follows:

«The world needs your dreams and your courage» Pope Francis said, urging them to be beacons of hope in a society that faces many obstacles. He reminded the audience that young people have the power to transform not only their lives but also their communities by building bridges of understanding and compassion. As the event drew to a close, the young attendees performed another traditional dance, recited the Lord’s Prayer, and presented a gift to the Pope in a gesture of gratitude. With a final blessing, Pope Francis bid farewell to the crowd before heading to Port Moresby International Airport.

Lord you are my island, in your bosom I rest. You are the calm of the sea, in that peace I lie. You are the deep waves of the ocean, in their depths I stay. You are the smooth white strand on the shore, in its swell I sing. You are the ocean of life that laps my being. In you is my eternal joy.
