Prayer for Love To be in love in my life world, Lord of Love, means many warm and charming things like close hugging and intimate talk.

It lasts as long as a day lily in sun.

To be in love in your reign, my Lord of Love, means joy in winter as rich as in spring.

It cherishes the precious dignity of friends and looks for a good spirit in strangers.

Let me love as You love, my Lord, and make my every action radiate compassion and contentment.

And may every word I say echo the words that You have said.
Amen.

Cake stall after Mass on 27th April

More readers are needed for both Saturday and Sunday Masses throughout the year.

If you are willing to go on the rota please let Father or one of the Congregation know. The more names, the less times you will have to read!

A Huge thank you to those who supported the Lent Lunches – making soups, helping to serve and wash up or even just being there!

An amazing £1,346.43 was achieved.

Maybe YOU could help next year???
